This year, the local author is Assistant Women's Basketball Coach for Tennessee Tech University, Allison Clark! Coach Clark is a former Golden Eagle from Shelbyville Central High & member of the 1995 state championship team, and is entering her eleventh season at Tennessee Tech & was inducted into their Sports Hall of Fame in 2016. Her first book "Off the Back of the Rim: Uplifting Thoughts to Help You Rebound from the Bricks of Life" is a motivational work released in 2014, and we are excited to hear her share how her experiences inspired her writing!

SUMMER READING PROGRAM 2023

The Shelbyville - Bedford County Public Library was proud to present our 2023 Summer Reading Program "All Together Now" this year! The Library again partnered with The Fly hosted children from the Boys and Girls Club, the SACP, and the Summer Program at East Side Elementary. Despite some rain, we had good finale events the last week of the program. We also debuted our adult summer reading challenge this year to expand our program and had 46 adults register for the inaugural year!

SBCPL registered over 350 Summer Reading participants and had 2,419 children, teens, and adults in attendance to in-person events over the weeks of Summer Reading. The 90 programs included performers, nutrition classes, escape rooms, crafts, STEAM activities, and Bookmobile. The Library would like to thank all of the children, teens, parents, grandparents, and anyone else who attended these programs as well as all our performers, staff, and volunteers! This year's Summer Reading Program would not have been a success without your participation.

Special Thanks to all of our Summer Reading Helpers!

Without you the 2023 Summer Reading Program would not have been such a success!

Top Right: Sara Morales helped us kick off Summer Reading 2023 with a Bilingual Storytime!

Bottom Right: The Runaway Puppet Theater shared funny stories about friendship and kindness for this year's Summer Reading theme!

Top Left: We had an electrifying science lesson on magnets and electricity from Dr. KaBoom from Mr. Bond's Science Guys!

Middle Left: Captain Tom Mason and First Mate Lassie Luna set sail in Shelbyville to teach us how to be pirates!

Bottom Left: We had plenty of community helpers that worked to make our finale amazing, including the Rec Center & D.A.R.!

Friends of the Library Council Report

Hello Friends,

Friends of the Library are looking forward to welcoming Allison Clark home as our speaker for this year's Annual Author's Luncheon! Allison will join us at the Blue Ribbon Circle on October 10th at noon where she will share her endeavors as an author and coach. If you do not have your ticket yet, stop by the library to purchase one. Among many achievements of this former Golden Eagle, Coach Clark is entering her eleventh season at her alma mater, Tennessee Tech University where her team won OVC Championship this past season. Ms. Clark was inducted into the Tennessee Tech's Sports Hall of Fame in 2016 and has been honored with the Flavious Smith Distinguished Outstanding Alumnus Award in 2019. We will enjoy hearing Allison Clark share how her experiences influenced her writing.

Get your car washed in October and support the library! When you get the code from the Friends of the Library to get your car washed, you will also support the library through a fundraiser.

Your sponsorship and support are vital to the Friends of the Library. Thank you for being a part of the Shelbyville Bedford County Library.
