

Shelbyville—Bedford County Public Library

“The Heart of the Community;
the place for everyone to meet, discover & grow.”

Hot spots are gaining popularity in libraries across the nation and Shelbyville-Bedford County Library is trying a 6-month experiment to observe the success of offering such a service to library patrons. Other libraries have reported that many individuals have rented hot spots for easier internet access while traveling. Library patrons with a card in good standing and a second form of identification will be able to check out a “hot spot” and take it with them for 7 days for a $10.00 rental fee. This fee covers the cost of the monthly service purchased from T-Mobile. If you're in need of temporary wi-fi, the hot spots act as a router, allowing Internet access for up to 10 devices.

The library will be unable to renew the hot spots by telephone as they do with books and audiovisual materials. These items are more fragile than some other library materials. When they are returned, they must be returned inside the library during open hours. They cannot be returned via the 24-hour outside drop. In order to keep the 10 units the library has moving, and allow the most use possible of what has proven to be a popular service in other libraries, the charge for keeping a hot spot overdue will be $1 per day. The library can remotely deactivate any hot spot which is kept overdue rendering it useless. Patrons using this service must be at least 18 years of age. Parents need to know that these units do not offer any automatic content filtering.

Library director, Rita Allen, expressed her excitement about this new service, “We hope that the hot spots are just as popular as they have been at some of our fellow Tennessee libraries. This is something I have been hoping we would be able to do for quite a while.”

Members of the Friends of the Library Council presented a check for $7,500 to Rita Allen, library director and Lis Ann Morehart, children’s librarian from the proceeds raised at the Annual Author’s Luncheon that was held in October. These funds will be used to purchase new shelving for the Young Adult area. Pictured L to R are: Rita Allen, Jennifer Henderson, Monica Lewis (FOTL Chair), Rheaetta Wilson, Randy Carroll, Janie Burke, and Lis Ann Morehart.

Friends of the Library Council Report

Dear Friends,

Anyone attending the Friends of the Library Annual Author's Luncheon in October were graced with inspiring words from author, Meredith Burton. Miss Burton made the short jaunt from her hometown of Lynchburg to share her experiences as a writer, a student growing up with challenges, and her books. She shared with the audience her self-published book as well as her other titles. Lunch was wonderful although the treat of the afternoon was when Meredith Burton wrapped up her presentation by singing for her audience with a voice that was truly angelic. This was unexpected and delightful! Whether table sponsors or purchasers of individual tickets, your support of this annual fundraiser, the Friends of the Library Annual Author's Luncheon, is greatly appreciated.

This has been a year full of progress and development for the Friends Council as well as the Library. The money earned from the luncheon is being used to add needed shelving and furnishings for the children's and youth areas in the library. As a reading teacher, I know the importance of these areas being inviting, stimulating, and comfortable for young folks as they explore and enjoy the books.

The support and reinforcement the Friends Council provides is a vital part of the Shelbyville-Bedford County Library. As it takes a village to raise a child, it takes Friends of the Library to implement a successful library program. The village which contributes to the library is the dedicated staff, dependable volunteers, loyal patrons, and Friends of the Library. Being part of this endeavor is richly rewarding! The Friends of the Library Council helps with fundraisers, activities the library conducts for the community as well as helping to meet some of the needs of the library in order to conduct daily business. As members who have served on the Council for several years roll off, the Council welcomes new members. Feel free to let any member of the Council know if you are interested in participating as a member of the Friends of the Library Council. The Council will come together in early spring for events to support our library. We would love to have you join us!

Until then, get lost in a good book from our library as we enjoy the winter months ahead! I look forward to our meeting in March!
